

1 Introduction

The core of this homework is object detection which draws bounding boxes of pigs in several images. My task is to implement a model that detects pigs in some angles of camera shots as more accurately as possible.

2 Implementation Details

2.1 Data Processing

The dataset contains 7000+ training images and 2000+ test images.

3 Experimental Results

4 Conclusion